

LIVE MUSIC WITH ALIZA AND ARIE

Thursday, May 30th @ 1:00 pm

Wayne YMCA Meeting Rooms A and B

Join us for live music with Arie and Aliza, a husband and wife team, who share a love of music and performing.

They feature a variety of music from the 20th century including oldies, pop, rock, and show tunes. Their musical influences are many and varied, including: The Beatles, The Carpenters, Billy Joel, and Barry Manilow.

Aliza (Lisa) Dubin-Isaacs is a fitness instructor and health and wellness coach. She is an accomplished singer-songwriter, and performer who has written and recorded two full length albums.

Arie Isaacs is an ordained rabbi, former Judaic studies teacher, and businessman. In his spare time, he enjoys reading the Torah, watching sports, playing acoustic guitar and singing.

This program is free and open to the community thanks to the generosity of the Jewish Federation of Northern New Jersey.
